

Imagine you are visiting Sierra Leone and you have to write a postcard to friends or family back home in Scotland. You could perhaps include information about places you have visited, things you have seen, food you have eaten or things that you have done! Draw a picture in the space provided of something you might have seen during your time in the country.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for drawing a picture of something seen in Sierra Leone.The bottom section of the postcard template, divided into two parts by a vertical line. On the right side, there is a small square box for a stamp in the top right corner and four horizontal lines for writing an address or message below it.
